

2015 National APAMSA Conference Scholarship Essay Contest

Hello APAMSA 2015 National Conference Current & Prospective Attendees,

Our conference planning team for the 2015 National Conference is happy to announce that we are offering several scholarships for conference attendees to offset the cost of registration and travel. We will select recipients based on an essay contest, with prompts centering on this year's theme, "Intersections in Healthcare." There are a set number of and amount for the scholarships based on the school region. The winning students must attend the conference in order to receive the scholarship and will be recognized at the conference banquet on Saturday, September 26th.

Travel scholarships available:

Region I: Two $100 scholarships

Region II: Four $100 scholarships

Region III: Four $100 scholarships

Region IV: Four $100 scholarships

Region V: Four $100 scholarships

Region VI: Four $100 scholarships

Region VII: Four $50 scholarships

Essay Prompts (please respond to both):

1. What are some healthcare issues in the Asian American community that you are most interested in and how do you plan to address them currently as a medical student and as a future physician? (250 word limit)
2. Of the following fields (law, technology, business, policy, other -- please specify), which are you most interested in integrating into your future career and why/how? (250 word limit)

Please e-mail your essays to conference@apamsa.org. Please include your name, school, anticipated graduation date, phone number, and e-mail at the top of your essay. Please let us know if your school is providing funds for you to attend the National Conference. Thank you in advance for your submissions, and we look forward to reading them!
